Member TINs

The members-of the Applicant are all individuals who each have less than a controlling interest in the Applicant. The Applicant has not collected social security numbers from each of the members and believes it is burdensome and an invasion of the member's privacy to request such information. In general, the FCC's rules do not require information on direct interest holders that hold a less than 10% interest in the applicant. It is only the instructions to FCC Form 602 that require information about all members of an LLC regardless of interest held.
